

Training School

Public school $150

Public School training is a 5 week class that will meet once a week for group training.

Private school $175

Private school training is a 5 session package of one on one training with the trainer and the owners at Pooch Playhouse & Boarding

Home school $200

Home school training is when we come to you for training! If your dog is more comfortable in the home or their unwanted behavior is best fixed in home (i.e., greeting people at the door) then home schooling is for you

Day school $300

Day School training is a 5 session package that includes daycare. There will be a parent/trainer conference after each day to show the owner how to continue working with their dog

Boarding school $800

Boarding School training is a 10 day boarding stay where your dog is enrolled in an intensive training program. On the last day there will be a parent/trainer conference for the trainer to show the owner how to continue to work with their dog

There will be homework sent home after each training session that the owner must complete with their dog before the next session*

All Training Schools (except Public School) are tailored to what the owner/dog need, as long as the trainer has the resources they need to achieve success.*
